

I live in the Houston, Texas area. Traffic in this city is impossible at times. The XM traffic report provides me with up to date information to assist me in avoiding dangerous traffic situations, wrecks and hazardous material spills. In addition, the Gulf Coast has sudden severe weather events and the weather reports on XM radio help give me early warning. I think it is a disservice to the public to require that they be removed from XM radio.